1. Anna Pauker, member of the Politburo of the Secretariat of the Rumanian Communist Party, and Tsola Dragolcheva, Chief Secretary of the Fatherland Front in Bulgaria, were scheduled to visit Stockholm during September.
2. Nina Popova, President of the Anti-Fascist Committee of Soviet Women and Vice-President of the Women's International Democratic Federation; Larissa Alexandrovskaja, People's Artist of the USSR; Eugenia Cotton, President of the Women's International Democratic Federation; and (fnu) Rodinova, a Czech (possibly identical with Aneska Rodinova, Communist and former member of the Czechoslovakian Government-in-Exile) were expected to attend a conference to be held in Stockholm on 22 September 1947. ([REDACTED] Comment: This conference was probably in connection with the Women's International Democratic Federation which met in Stockholm in September.) 25X1A6a
3. Conferences among Scandinavian Communists will be held in the near future for the purpose of discussing problems involving clandestine activity. In connection with such activity, Gunnar Ohman, a member of the Central Committee of the Swedish Communist Party, has been in Denmark for consultation with Aksel Larsen, a leader of the Danish Communist Party.
4. Fritjof Lager, member of the Swedish Communist Party, speaker, and newspaperman, was in Prague during August to attend a conference for European Communist leaders.
